The Cow and the Lions

There was a farmer who had five cows. The farmer trained them well. They were very kind and helpful. They decided to do everything together. so, the lion could not attack them. The farmer passed away after the illness. They got sad but could not eat alone.

One day, they fought and they started to eat alone at different places. The lion took the advantage and killed them one by one.

Moral: Unity is strength.

The Little Girl and the Old Man

Once there was a little girl named Sara. She was very kind and met everyone with respect. Once an old man crossed her on the way. He started to scold her for no reason. Instead of reacting, she behaved with love and respect.

The old man suddenly realized his mistake and he changed his behaviour. He started to treat everyone with kindness.

Moral: Always spread love and kindness.

The Crow and the Peacock

Once there was a crow who wishes to be colourful like other birds. So he went to his friend parrot and shared his thoughts. The parrot neglected him. Then he went to the peacock. He shared his thoughts. The peacock replied, "You are the luckiest bird that has never been caged in life. You can fly while we can't." Then the crow realized his mistake. He thanked God for making a free bird. He flew away happily.

Moral: Never compare yourself to others.
